

Acts 3:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

Analysis

Christ remains in heaven 'until the times of restitution of all things' (apokatastasis) - complete restoration of God's purposes. This phrase doesn't teach universal salvation but creation's full renewal. God's prophetic promises 'since the world began' find fulfillment in Christ.

Historical Context

The concept of cosmic restoration appears in Isaiah 65:17, Romans 8:19-22, and Revelation 21:1-5. Jewish expectation anticipated messianic renewal of all things.

Study Questions

1. What does 'restitution of all things' include in God's redemptive plan?
2. How should future hope shape present engagement with a broken world?
