

Acts 3:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

Analysis

---

The warning - 'every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed' - applies Deuteronomy's curse to Christ-rejectors. Being 'destroyed from among the people' means covenant exclusion. Rejection of Jesus excludes from God's people regardless of Jewish lineage.

Historical Context

This severe warning echoed Deuteronomy 18:19's judicial consequences for ignoring God's prophet. Peter applies it to those who reject Jesus, warning that ethnic Israel offers no protection.

Related Passages

Romans 1:17 — The righteous shall live by faith

James 2:17 — Faith and works

John 15:13 — Greatest form of love

1 John 4:8 — God is love

Study Questions

---

1. How does this warning challenge presumption based on religious heritage?

2. What does exclusion 'from among the people' mean for those rejecting Christ?
