

Acts 4:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

Analysis

The prayer quotes Psalm 2:1-2 - 'Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together' - applying David's royal psalm to Christ's rejection. The Greek 'phryssō' (rage) suggests snorting horses, emphasizing irrational fury. 'Imagine vain things' (Greek 'meletaō kena') means 'meditate on empty things' - futile schemes against omnipotent God. This prayer interprets persecution through Scripture, seeing God's sovereign purpose.

Historical Context

Psalm 2, a royal coronation psalm celebrating David's enthronement despite opposition, became messianic in interpretation. The early church read Israel's history as prophetic pattern for Christ's rejection and ultimate triumph. Praying Scripture shaped theological understanding of current events.

Study Questions

1. How does praying Scripture train us to interpret present circumstances through redemptive history?
2. What comfort does the 'vain' (futile) nature of opposition to God's Anointed provide under persecution?
