

Acts 4:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

Analysis

Apostolic witness to resurrection formed Christianity's core message, demonstrating that early preaching centered on historical event, not mere ethical teaching. 'Great power' (Greek 'dunamis') indicates Spirit-enabled boldness and authenticating miracles. 'Great grace upon them all' shows divine favor enabling their mission and attracting converts.

Historical Context

Despite threats from the Sanhedrin (Acts 4:18-21), the apostles continued public testimony in Jerusalem. Their message's emphasis on resurrection directly challenged Sadducean theology and explained Jesus' empty tomb to curious crowds.

Study Questions

1. Why is the resurrection central to Christian witness rather than merely Jesus' teachings?
2. How does God's grace empower bold testimony in hostile environments?
