

Acts 5:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

Analysis

The statement 'by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people' attributes miracles to divine agency through apostolic ministry. The Greek 'dia tōn cheirōn' (by the hands) emphasizes instrumentality - apostles were conduits, not sources. 'Many signs and wonders' validated the message. The church meeting 'with one accord in Solomon's porch' showed public visibility and unity despite opposition. Solomon's porch provided prominent temple location, demonstrating boldness in claiming Jewish religious space for Christian proclamation.

Historical Context

Solomon's porch (colonnade) on temple's east side offered shade for teaching. Jesus taught there (John 10:23). Early church's continued temple worship while maintaining distinct identity through baptism and Lord's Supper shows transitional period before Judaism-Christianity split. The public meeting space facilitated evangelism.
