

Acts 7:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

Analysis

Joseph's summons brought seventy-five souls to Egypt (Genesis 46:27, Septuagint count including Joseph's grandchildren born in Egypt). This small family would multiply into a great nation, demonstrating God's covenant faithfulness to make Abraham's descendants numerous. The specific number emphasizes God's particular knowledge and care for each covenant member. The divine precision in fulfilling promises encourages our trust in God's detailed providence.

Historical Context

The number seventy-five (LXX) versus seventy (Hebrew) reflects different counting methods—Hebrew counts direct descendants, while LXX includes grandsons born in Egypt. The invited settlement in Goshen (Genesis 47:6) gave them fertile land while keeping them separate from Egyptian culture. This preserved their distinct identity during the 400-year Egyptian sojourn.
