

Acts 8:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

Analysis

The apostles in Jerusalem heard of Samaria's reception of God's word and sent Peter and John to investigate and confirm. This demonstrates apostolic oversight and the unity of the early church. The Samaritan mission was too important to proceed without apostolic validation, given the historic Jewish-Samaritan divide. Reformed theology sees the importance of church order and oversight - new works should be examined and confirmed by established leadership. The apostles' involvement ensured the Samaritan church began on sound doctrinal foundation.

Historical Context

Jerusalem remained the mother church and center of apostolic authority in Christianity's early years. This sending of apostles parallels Jesus' practice of confirming and authorizing new ministry (Luke 10:1). Peter and John had once wanted to call down fire on Samaritans (Luke 9:54) - now they brought the Spirit's fire.

Study Questions

1. What role should church authority and oversight play in new ministry ventures?
2. How does apostolic confirmation of Samaria's conversion demonstrate church unity?
3. Why was it crucial that the apostles personally validated the Samaritan mission?
