

Amos 8:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

Analysis

In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst (בַּיּוֹם הַהוּא) bayom hahu tit'alafnah hab'tulot hayafot v'habachurim batzama)—Young, vigorous people (בָּתָלָה, betulot, 'virgins'; בָּחוּרִים, 'young men') typically most resilient will 'faint' (עָלָה, alaf, 'grow faint, languish'). But this is spiritual thirst (אַצָּפָח, tzama), not physical—they faint from lack of God's Word (8:11-12), not water.

This emphasizes spiritual famine's devastating completeness: even the strong cannot endure. Jesus promised the opposite to those who come to Him: 'whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst' (John 4:14). Rejecting Living Water results in unquenchable spiritual thirst.

Historical Context

This prophecy describes the post-exilic state of the northern tribes. Scattered among pagan nations without temple, priesthood, or prophets, they spiritually withered. Later, Jesus found Israel in similar spiritual famine—shepherdless sheep whom religious leaders had failed to feed (Matthew 9:36).

Study Questions

1. How do people today spiritually 'faint for thirst' despite having physical Bibles accessible everywhere?
2. What's the difference between spiritual thirst that drives people to God versus the judgment-famine where His Word becomes unavailable?
3. How should this warning motivate believers to drink deeply from God's Word while it remains accessible?
