

Deuteronomy 11:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

Analysis

The promise: 'There shall no man be able to stand before you.' This assures military invincibility under covenant obedience. The mechanism: 'the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land.' God will fight psychologically before Israel fights physically—supernatural terror will paralyze enemies. The Hebrew pachad (רֻפָּא, fear) and mora (אַמְּרָא, dread/terror) indicate paralyzing fear. This strategy appeared at Red Sea (Exodus 15:14-16), with Rahab's testimony (Joshua 2:9-11), and Gibeonite surrender (Joshua 9:24). Divine terror is spiritual weapon that defeats enemies before battle begins.

Historical Context

Rahab confessed: 'the terror of you is fallen upon us, and all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you' (Joshua 2:9). The Canaanite coalition 'melted' in fear (Joshua 5:1). Exodus 23:27 promised 'I will send my fear before thee.' This psychological warfare reflects ancient Near Eastern concept of divine terror (melammu in Akkadian) associated with deity presence. Israel's victories often came through enemy panic (Judges 7:22; 1 Samuel 14:15-20) rather than superior force.
