

Deuteronomy 14:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.

Analysis

Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed (עִשֶּׂר תְּעַשֶּׂר, aser te'aser, intensive construction: 'you shall certainly tithe')—The tithe (מָעָשֶׂר, ma'aser, literally 'tenth') acknowledges God's ownership of all. The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1). Tithing isn't paying God what's His; it's acknowledging everything is His.

Moses describes three tithes:

1. Levitical tithe (Numbers 18:21)
2. Festival tithe (here, vv. 22-27)
3. Charity tithe every third year (vv. 28-29).

Together they approach 23% annually—far exceeding modern 'prosperity gospel' minimums. Malachi confronts: Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me (Malachi 3:8). New Testament giving isn't less generous but more: freely ye have received, freely give (Matthew 10:8).

Historical Context

Agricultural societies measured wealth in harvest yields. Annual tithing forced Israel to trust God for next year's provision—an act of faith that God owned and would replenish the fields. Failure to tithe declared practical atheism: 'I alone make this grow.'

Study Questions

1. Does your giving reflect mere obligation (minimum percentage) or grateful acknowledgment that everything belongs to God?
2. How does systematic, 'certain' tithing (not sporadic generosity) demonstrate trust in God's continued provision?
3. What areas of your 'increase' (time, talents, relationships) need to be 'tithed' beyond financial giving?
