

Deuteronomy 27:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

Analysis

Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God. Whole stones reinforces the unhewn requirement - the stones must be complete and unaltered. Fragmented or modified stones are inappropriate for God's altar, teaching that human brokenness and manipulation cannot serve as foundation for worship.

The designation altar of the LORD thy God emphasizes ownership - this is God's altar built according to His specifications. Though Israel constructs it, the altar belongs to God and must conform to His design, not human preferences.

The purpose offer burnt offerings thereon indicates this altar serves sacrificial worship. Burnt offerings represented complete consecration - the entire animal consumed by fire, symbolizing total dedication to God. The unhewn altar hosts offerings of complete surrender.

Reformed theology sees the burnt offering as type of Christ's complete self-offering. He gave Himself wholly to God in perfect obedience, providing the complete consecration we cannot achieve.

Historical Context

Burnt offerings ('olah - that which ascends) were entirely consumed on the altar with nothing reserved for human consumption. This represented complete dedication and atonement for sin.

The Mount Ebal altar would be the first altar in the Promised Land, making it foundational for Israel's worship in their new home.
