

Deuteronomy 3:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Analysis

The comprehensive description 'All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan' emphasizes totality of conquest. Listing specific territories (the plain, Gilead, Bashan) documents the full extent of possession. Mentioning the northern border cities 'Salchah and Edrei' provides concrete verification. This detailed record serves as testimony to God's faithfulness—specific names and places prove God keeps His word in actual history.

Historical Context

The 'cities of the plain' refer to the Moabite plateau, Gilead to the central highlands, and Bashan to the northern region. Salchah and Edrei marked the northeastern and southeastern extremes of Og's kingdom. These geographical markers allowed future generations to verify the conquest accounts.
