

Deuteronomy 6:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

Analysis

The triple command 'fear the LORD...serve him...swear by his name' defines comprehensive covenant loyalty. The Hebrew 'yare' (fear) includes reverential awe producing obedience. 'Serve' ('abad') indicates devoted worship and daily life orientation toward God. Swearing by God's name means invoking Him as ultimate witness to truth. Together, these commands require exclusive devotion—heart, actions, and speech aligned with God alone. This verse restates the first commandment's demand for undivided loyalty. Jesus quotes this text when rejecting Satan's temptation (Matthew 4:10), demonstrating its continuing authority.

Historical Context

Israel constantly battled temptation to syncretize Yahweh worship with Canaanite religion—fearing Baal for rain, serving Asherah for fertility, swearing by pagan gods. The prophets condemned this divided loyalty (1 Kings 18:21, Zephaniah 1:5). True covenant relationship requires exclusive worship. The early church faced similar pressure to acknowledge Caesar as lord or burn incense to Roman gods, yet remained faithful to Christ alone despite persecution. Exclusive allegiance distinguishes genuine faith from religious pluralism.
