

Deuteronomy 6:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you;

Analysis

The prohibition 'Ye shall not go after other gods' warns against spiritual adultery. The phrase 'gods of the people which are round about you' identifies the specific temptation—Canaanite polytheism. Following other gods constitutes covenant violation, spiritual adultery against the divine husband (Hosea 1-3). The comprehensive sweep 'of the people which are round about you' acknowledges external cultural pressure. This verse illustrates the Reformed understanding that the world, flesh, and devil constantly tempt believers toward idolatry. Perseverance requires vigilance against syncretism and spiritual compromise. The church must remain distinct from surrounding paganism.

Historical Context

Canaanite religion featured Baal (storm/fertility god), Asherah (mother goddess), Molech (requiring child sacrifice), and Chemosh (Moabite deity). Israel repeatedly adopted these abominations: Baal worship under Judges (Judges 2:11-13), Ahab and Jezebel (1 Kings 16:31-33), Manasseh filling Jerusalem with idols (2 Kings 21:1-9). This spiritual adultery provoked God's judgment through Assyrian and Babylonian exile. Only the remnant remained faithful, preserving true worship and messianic lineage.

Study Questions

1. How does the surrounding culture's paganism create constant pressure toward syncretism and spiritual compromise?
2. What modern equivalents to ancient idolatry threaten to draw Christians away from exclusive devotion to Christ?
