

Deuteronomy 8:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

Analysis

Moses continues: 'Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.' The 'therefore' connects God's fatherly discipline (verse 5) to obedient response—proper understanding of God's character produces reverence and obedience. 'Walk in his ways' presents the Christian life as a journey, requiring daily faithfulness. The 'fear' of God (yirah) is both reverential awe and practical wisdom—recognizing God's authority and aligning life accordingly.

Historical Context

This command anticipates Israel's entrance into Canaan, where they'll face temptations to adopt Canaanite practices and worship Canaanite deities. Walking in God's ways would distinguish Israel from surrounding nations, making them a 'holy nation' (Exodus 19:6). Israel's later syncretism and idolatry demonstrated failure to fear God and walk in His ways, resulting in prophetic warnings and eventual exile.
