

Exodus 14:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

Analysis

God's question 'Wherefore criest thou unto me?' seems surprising after telling them to cry out (verse 10). The issue isn't prayer but paralysis—they're praying instead of obeying. The command 'speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward' requires movement toward the sea despite no visible path. Faith obeys before seeing the way. This distinguishes genuine faith (obedient action) from mere religious emotion (paralyzed praying).

Historical Context

This rebuke shows prayer can become avoidance of obedience. Israel was called to move toward the sea while Moses enacted the miracle. Faith requires both prayer and obedient action.
