

Exodus 15:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.

Analysis

The cause of enemy fear: 'Fear and dread shall fall upon them.' The phrase 'by the greatness of thine arm' credits divine power for psychological victory. The result: 'they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.' The repetition 'pass over' echoes Passover—God's people 'pass over' obstacles while enemies are paralyzed. The term 'purchased' (qanah, קָנָה) indicates ownership by right of redemption price paid.

Historical Context

This paralysis of enemies occurred in Joshua's conquests where Canaanite kings were demoralized (Joshua 10:2, 11:20). God's reputation made conquest possible through psychological rather than merely military means.

Study Questions

1. How does God's psychological defeat of enemies (paralyzing fear) complement physical victory?
2. What does God 'purchasing' you teach about ownership rights over your life and direction?
