

Exodus 15:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

Analysis

The ultimate destination: 'Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance.' The verb 'plant' (nata, נָתָּה) suggests permanent, rooted settlement—not temporary sojourn. The phrase 'the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in' identifies the location as God's chosen dwelling. The parallel 'the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established' specifies both temple mount and temple structure. Redemption's goal is dwelling with God.

Historical Context

This prophecy looked ahead to both the tabernacle (immediate) and the Jerusalem temple (ultimate). It established that God's presence dwelling with His people was the exodus's ultimate purpose, fulfilled finally in Revelation 21:3.

Study Questions

1. How does understanding that God's presence is redemption's goal rather than merely blessing affect your priorities?
2. What does God 'planting' rather than temporarily placing you teach about His intention for permanent relationship?
