

Exodus 15:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

Analysis

The declaration 'The LORD is a man of war' uses anthropomorphic language—God is compared to a warrior. The Hebrew 'ish milchamah' (אִישׁ מִלְחָמָה) means warrior/military man. This challenges modern sentimentalism that denies God's warring character. The parallel statement 'the LORD is his name' identifies YHWH as the personal covenant name. God's identity includes being a warrior who fights for His people. This anticipates Christ as conquering King (Revelation 19:11-16).

Historical Context

This description of YHWH as warrior appears throughout Scripture (Exodus 14:14, Joshua 10:14, Judges 4:15). Israel's God fights for His people against their enemies, demonstrating His love through power.

Study Questions

1. How does recognizing God as a warrior balance modern tendencies toward sentimentalism that ignores His wrath?

2. What battles are you trying to fight alone rather than trusting the LORD as your warrior?
