

Exodus 15:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Analysis

This verse quotes the enemy's boast: 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil.' Six boastful 'I wills' reveal human pride opposing God's purposes. The enemy's plan included recapturing Israel and 'my lust shall be satisfied upon them.' The statement 'I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them' shows confidence in military might. Pharaoh's arrogance blinds him to divine opposition. Pride precedes destruction.

Historical Context

This recounting of enemy boasting highlights the dramatic reversal—Egypt's confident plans met God's superior purposes. Quoting enemy intentions shows God's awareness and ultimate control.
