

Exodus 16:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

Analysis

And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations— Moses instructs Aaron to place manna 'before the LORD' (לפנֵי יהוה, lifnei YHWH), indicating sacred storage in the Holy of Holies. The 'pot' (קְצַנְתֶּן, tzintzenet) becomes holy vessel, preserving common bread as perpetual testimony. This manna 'before the LORD' teaches that God's provision deserves permanent memorial—Israel must never forget how God fed them in the wilderness. Aaron's priestly role in preserving the manna prefigures Christ's heavenly priesthood, where He eternally represents the bread His body became. The preserved manna's non-corruption foreshadows Christ's resurrection body that saw no decay.

Historical Context

This command would be fulfilled after the Tabernacle's construction. The golden pot with manna was placed in the Ark (Heb 9:4), though later accounts suggest only the tablets remained (1 Kings 8:9).

Study Questions

1. What does placing daily bread 'before the LORD' in the holiest place teach about God's valuing of physical provision?
2. How does manna's preserved form versus its daily form picture Christ's resurrection body versus His earthly ministry?
