

Exodus 20:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

Analysis

Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

The irony is thick—Israel will violate this within weeks (golden calf, Exodus 32). 'Make with me' (לֹא תַעֲשֶׂן אִתִּי, lo ta'asun itti) means 'alongside me'—no supplementary deities. The prohibition specifies precious metals (silver, gold)—costly idols are still abominations. Wealth doesn't sanctify idolatry; expensive idols are expensive abominations. The command guards the second commandment's spirit—no images of YHWH, no images of other gods. Aaron will claim the calf represents YHWH (Exodus 32:5), but God rejects this—any visual representation distorts Him. The New Testament applies this spiritually: greed is idolatry (Colossians 3:5); we cannot serve God and money (Matthew 6:24).

Historical Context

Gold and silver idols were common in the ancient Near East—Baal images, Asherah poles, household gods. Israel's temptation wasn't crude polytheism but syncretism—adding YHWH to pantheons or depicting Him via images.

Study Questions

1. Why does God specifically prohibit silver and gold idols—how does wealth not legitimize false worship?
2. How do Christians make 'gods of silver and gold' through materialism and greed today?
