

Exodus 22:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

Analysis

He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

This ordinance reveals God's comprehensive justice—regulating economic transactions, property rights, and social relationships. The mishpatim create framework for covenant community to flourish. Each law applies broader principles: love God supremely, love neighbor practically. Modern believers aren't bound by ceremonial laws but should pursue their spirit—justice, mercy, and faithfulness (Matthew 23:23). God's character revealed in law guides Christian ethics.

Historical Context

These civil regulations distinguished Israel from surrounding nations, creating a society reflecting God's justice. The laws balance individual rights with community welfare, property rights with compassion for the poor.
