

Exodus 25:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

Analysis

The Ark's contents: 'the testimony which I shall give thee.' The Hebrew עֵדוּת (edut, testimony) refers to the tablets of the law, God's witness to His righteous standards and covenant faithfulness. The Ark becomes God's throne because He rules based on His revealed truth. Christ fulfilled this law perfectly, becoming the living embodiment of God's testimony (John 1:17).

Historical Context

The stone tablets containing the Ten Commandments (Exodus 31:18) would be placed inside the Ark after Moses' second ascent of Sinai. These tablets testified to God's moral standards and covenantal relationship with Israel.
