

Exodus 25:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

Analysis

The offering must be voluntary ('willing heart'), establishing that true worship flows from love, not compulsion. Every material listed—gold, silver, bronze, fine linens, precious stones—carried symbolic significance, with gold representing deity, silver redemption, and bronze judgment. These materials, gained from Egypt through God's judgment, now serve His glory, picturing redemption's transformation.

Historical Context

The Israelites possessed these materials through the plundering of Egypt (Exodus 12:35-36), God's provision that enabled tabernacle construction. This demonstrated that God equips His people for the worship He commands.

Study Questions

1. Does your worship flow from obligation or from a heart made willing by grace?
2. How has God transformed 'plunder' from your past into resources for His glory?
