

Exodus 25:40

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

Analysis

The chapter concludes with emphatic repetition: 'Look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.' The Hebrew רִאֵה (re'eh, 'see/look/take heed') intensifies the command. Moses must reproduce exactly what God revealed, not improvise. This underscores that worship must be according to divine revelation. Hebrews 8:5 confirms Moses saw heavenly realities—the tabernacle is a copy, Christ the reality.

Historical Context

Moses received these detailed instructions during his forty days on Mount Sinai (Exodus 24:18). The emphasis on exact replication protected Israel from syncretism with surrounding pagan practices and ensured worship reflected heavenly truth.

Study Questions

1. Why must worship conform to God's revealed pattern rather than human creativity?
2. How does understanding the tabernacle as a 'copy' of heavenly reality enhance your appreciation of Christ?
