

Exodus 25:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

Analysis

The divine pattern: all must be made 'according to all that I shew thee.' The Hebrew word תְּבִ�ִית (tabnit, pattern) suggests an architectural blueprint or model. This emphasizes that worship must conform to divine revelation, not human creativity. Hebrews 8:5 confirms that Moses was shown a heavenly pattern, making the earthly tabernacle a 'copy and shadow' of heavenly realities centered in Christ.

Historical Context

Moses received these instructions during forty days on Mount Sinai (Exodus 24:18), possibly seeing a heavenly vision of the true sanctuary. This divine origin gave the tabernacle unique authority as the place of God's prescribed worship.

Study Questions

1. Why must worship conform to God's pattern rather than human preferences?

2. How does knowing the tabernacle was patterned after heavenly realities affect your view of worship?
