

Exodus 26:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

Analysis

A cubit overhang on each side (the goats' hair curtains being 30 cubits to the linen's 28) ensures the precious inner covering is completely shielded. Every part of God's glory receives protection. Nothing is left exposed to elements. Similarly, Christ's redemption completely covers believers—no portion of our life is unprotected by His sacrifice. 'He that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye' (Zechariah 2:8).

Historical Context

The one-cubit overhang on each side meant the goats' hair curtains extended 18 inches beyond the linen on both sides, preventing rain from reaching the inner curtains. This practical design demonstrates God's attention to complete protection.
