

Exodus 26:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

Analysis

Two additional coverings: rams' skins dyed red and badgers'/dugongs' skins. The rams' skins dyed red clearly suggest substitutionary sacrifice (rams sacrificed throughout the tabernacle system). Red points to blood atonement. The outer covering of badger/dugong skins—tough, waterproof, and unbeautiful—recalls Isaiah 53:2, 'no beauty that we should desire him.' Christ appeared unremarkable outwardly, His glory hidden, yet provided complete protection.

Historical Context

Ram leather, tanned and dyed red, was strong and water-resistant. The outermost covering of dugong (or possibly badger) skin was extremely durable marine mammal hide from the Red Sea, providing maximum weather protection for the tabernacle interior.

Study Questions

1. How do the red rams' skins symbolize Christ's substitutionary sacrifice covering you?
2. Why did God design Christ's outward appearance to be unremarkable (Isaiah 53:2)?
