

Exodus 28:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

Analysis

Aaron and his sons are consecrated 'to minister unto me in the priest's office.' God chooses and calls His priests; they don't self-appoint. Aaron represents Christ our High Priest (Hebrews 5:4-5), while Aaron's sons represent believers as a kingdom of priests (1 Peter 2:9). The specific naming (Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, Ithamar) shows that priestly service involves particular callings, not generic spirituality. God knows His servants by name.

Historical Context

From Aaron's line alone could legitimate priests descend, establishing clear succession that would continue until Christ, the ultimate High Priest. This Aaronic priesthood mediated between God and Israel for over a thousand years, until Christ's once-for-all mediation superseded it.

Study Questions

1. How does God's specific calling of priests encourage you about His particular calling on your life?
2. In what ways does Christ fulfill everything Aaron's priesthood foreshadowed?
