

Exodus 28:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

Analysis

Two onyx stones engraved with the tribes' names—six names per stone, arranged by birth order. Engraving suggests permanence; these names aren't written but carved into stone. Birth order indicates that God remembers each tribe's history and origin. The high priest bears this permanent record on his shoulders (strength). Christ bears our names permanently—not temporarily remembered but eternally engraved. We are 'graven upon the palms of His hands' (Isaiah 49:16).

Historical Context

Onyx (שׁוֹحָם, shoham), a semi-precious stone with layered coloring, was valuable and durable. The engraving required skilled craftsmen to carve the names without breaking the stone—permanent yet delicate work.

Study Questions

1. What does 'engraved' (versus written) names teach about the permanence of Christ's remembrance of you?

2. How does God's remembering your 'birth order' (personal history) encourage you?
