

Exodus 3:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Analysis

And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites נָאֹרֶד לְמַכְאֵלָו מִןْ מִצְרָיִם וְלִפְעָלָתוֹ מִן־בָּאָרֶץ הַהוּא אֶל־אָרֶץ טֹבָה וַיַּרְפְּבָה אֶל־אָרֶץ זָבֵת) va'ered lehatsilo miyad Mitsrayim ulha'aloto min-ha'arets hahi el-erets tovah urechavah el-erets zavat chalav udevash)—I am come down (va'ered)—God actively intervenes in history. Deliver (צַלָּל, natsal, "snatch away/rescue") is salvation language. The dual purpose: deliver (from bondage) and bring up (to blessing). Good land and large (טֹבָה וַיַּרְפְּבָה) contrasts with Egypt's oppression. Flowing with milk and honey (זָבֵת חֶלְבָּה וַיַּבְשָׁה) —the famous metaphor denoting fertility and abundance (used 20x in Torah). The list of seven nations occupying Canaan (Canaanites through Jebusites) previews conquest challenges but also God's comprehensive gift.

Historical Context

"Milk and honey" described agricultural richness—goat/sheep milk from pastoral land, honey from date palms and bees from wild sources. Canaan's fertility contrasted with Egypt's dependence on Nile irrigation and with Sinai's wilderness. The seven nations represent entrenched opposition God will overcome (Deuteronomy 7:1). This promise fulfills Genesis 15:18-21 and 17:8—the land covenant to Abraham.

Study Questions

1. How does the two-part promise—deliverance from bondage AND blessing in the land—reflect the fullness of salvation (justification and sanctification)?
2. What 'promised lands' of spiritual abundance is God calling you toward after delivering you from bondage?
