

Exodus 32:29

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Analysis

Moses' declaration מִלֵּא וְיָדְכֶם הַיּוֹם לַיהוָה (mil'u yedchem hayyom l'Adonai, Consecrate yourselves today to the Lord) uses the idiom 'fill your hand,' the technical term for priestly ordination. The phrase כִּי אִישׁ בִּבְנוֹ וּבְאָחִיו (ki ish bivno uve-achiv, for every man has been against his son and against his brother) indicates their consecration came through choosing God over family. The result—וְלָתֵת עֲלֵיכֶם הַיּוֹם בְּרָכָה (ve-latet aleichem hayyom berachah, to bestow upon you a blessing this day)—shows that costly obedience yields divine blessing. This prefigures Jesus' teaching that following Him costs family relationships (Luke 14:26).

Historical Context

The Levites' action here secured their role as Israel's priestly tribe (Num 3:12, Deut 33:9-11). Their willingness to execute judgment on family members qualified them to mediate between God and people.
