

Exodus 33:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

Analysis

Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way—Moses seeks experiential knowledge of God's character and methods ('thy way'), not mere information. The Hebrew דֶּרֶךְ (derek, 'way') encompasses God's nature, purposes, and patterns of working. Moses wants to know God Himself, that he might better represent Him ('that I may know thee'). The goal is both personal (deeper intimacy) and corporate ('that I may find grace in thy sight' and successfully lead 'thy people'). True leadership flows from knowing God, not just knowing about Him.

Historical Context

This request echoes Psalm 103:7: 'He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.' While Israel saw God's miracles, Moses understood His character—a distinction between witnessing power and comprehending nature.

Study Questions

1. Do you seek to know God's 'ways' (His character and methods) or merely His 'acts' (what He can do for you)?
2. How does knowing God Himself equip you for the challenges and callings He places before you?
