

Exodus 33:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

Analysis

And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest—God grants Moses' request! The Hebrew פָּנַי (panai, 'My face/presence') reverses the threatened withdrawal (v.3). 'I will give thee rest' (לָךְ אֶנְחִיחָהּ, vahanichotiy lakh) promises both physical rest in Canaan and spiritual rest in God's favor. This personal promise to Moses will extend corporately if Moses continues interceding. The rest motif anticipates Canaan (Deuteronomy 12:9) and ultimately points to the eternal rest in Christ (Hebrews 4:1-11). Divine presence transforms exhausting duty into restful communion.

Historical Context

The concept of 'rest' (נוּחָהּ, nuchah) became central to Israel's hope—rest from enemies in the Promised Land. Joshua would partially fulfill this (Joshua 21:44), but Hebrews 4 clarifies the ultimate rest remains future and spiritual.
