

Exodus 34:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thrice in the year shall all your men children appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel.

Analysis

Three times annually, every male must 'appear before the Lord GOD' (הַעֲדָה יְהָוָה, ha-adon YHWH). This command established corporate worship rhythm and covenant renewal. The threefold pattern structures the year around God's redemption (Passover/Unleavened Bread), provision (Weeks), and protection (Tabernacles). Appearing 'before the LORD' meant coming to the sanctuary, the designated meeting place between God and His people.

Historical Context

The three pilgrimage festivals were Passover/Unleavened Bread (spring), Pentecost/Weeks (early summer), and Tabernacles/Ingathering (fall). During temple periods, Jerusalem swelled with pilgrims; during wilderness/tabernacle era, Israel gathered at the central sanctuary.
