

Exodus 34:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.

Analysis

Two seemingly unrelated commands:

1. No leaven with blood sacrifices—leaven (fermentation/corruption) must not mix with atoning blood, symbolizing the purity required in approaching God
2. Passover sacrifice must not remain until morning—it must be fully consumed, preventing decay and emphasizing complete participation in redemption.

Both commands stress the holiness and immediacy of covenant worship.

Historical Context

These regulations governed Passover observance. The prohibition on leaving meat until morning prevented putrefaction in the hot climate and distinguished Israelite worship from pagan practices involving multi-day festivals.

1. How do these details about sacrifice demonstrate God's concern for purity in worship?
2. What does the requirement to fully consume the Passover sacrifice teach about complete commitment to redemption?
