

Exodus 37:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

Analysis

The mercy seat (תְּפִילִינָה, kapporet, from כַּפֵּר, kaphar—"to atone, cover") made of pure gold covered the law contained in the ark. This covering illustrates that mercy triumphs over judgment (James 2:13)—the law condemns, but mercy covers transgression through blood sprinkled on this lid once yearly (Leviticus 16:14). Christ is our mercy seat (Romans 3:25, ἱλαστήριον, hilasterion—"propitiation"), where God's justice and mercy meet, where the law's demands are satisfied through substitutionary atonement.

Historical Context

The mercy seat (lid of the ark) measured approximately 3.75' × 2.25', exactly fitting the ark's dimensions. On the Day of Atonement, the high priest sprinkled blood seven times on this golden cover, atoning for Israel's sins (Leviticus 16:14-15).
