

Exodus 39:43

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

Analysis

---

Moses' inspection ('did look upon all the work, and, behold') and verification ('they had done it as the LORD had commanded') led to blessing. The Hebrew וַיְבָרֶךְ (vay'varekh, and he blessed them) recalls creation—God blessed completed work (Genesis 1:22, 28; 2:3). The threefold emphasis (made, commanded, done) teaches that obedience brings blessing. Moses, as mediator, pronounced blessing on faithful servants—prefiguring Christ blessing those who do the Father's will (Matthew 25:21, 23). This blessing inaugurates chapter 40's tabernacle dedication.

Historical Context

Moses' blessing demonstrated leadership's priestly function—faithful leaders bless obedient servants. This blessing echoed earlier pronouncements (Leviticus 9:22-23; Numbers 6:23-27) and anticipated the high priestly blessings Aaron would pronounce. Moses' verification ensured that blessing rested on genuine obedience, not presumed service.
