

Exodus 39:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Analysis

Placing the engraved stones 'on the shoulders of the ephod' for 'a memorial' (זִיכָּר, zikaron, remembrance) before YHWH teaches that the high priest represented Israel constantly in God's presence. The shoulder signifies strength and support; Aaron bore Israel's names not on weak hands but strong shoulders. This memorial function prefigures Christ's perpetual intercession—He ever lives to make intercession (Hebrews 7:25), bearing His people's names before the Father. The phrase 'as the LORD commanded Moses' (the 2nd of 15 times in chs 39-40) underscores covenant faithfulness.

Historical Context

The 'memorial' concept (zikaron) appears throughout Scripture for practices that bring covenant realities before God and people (Passover, Sabbath, stones at Jordan). Aaron wearing Israel's names symbolized his representative capacity—he stood before God on their behalf.
