

Exodus 40:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Analysis

Moses 'set the bread in order upon' the table (בָּרַךְ עַלְיָה עֲרָךְ לְחֵם) vaya'a'rokh alav erekh lechem, arranged upon it an arrangement of bread) 'before the LORD' teaches ordered worship. The Hebrew עֲרָךְ (arakh, to arrange) emphasizes pattern —the twelve loaves represented twelve tribes in specific configuration. This prefigures the church's ordered worship (1 Corinthians 14:40) and organized structure (Titus 1:5). The phrase 'as the LORD commanded Moses' (4th in ch 40) maintains emphasis on prescribed worship. The bread's perpetual presence 'before the LORD' symbolizes constant covenant relationship.

Historical Context

The twelve loaves, arranged in two rows of six (Leviticus 24:6), remained on the table continuously, replaced fresh each Sabbath. The old loaves, eaten by priests, demonstrated God feeding His ministers through His provision. This perpetual bread offering symbolized Israel's constant dependence on divine sustenance.
