

Exodus 8:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

Analysis

Verse 27 describes the plague of flies (עֲרוֹב, arov—swarms), with crucial distinction: Goshen is protected. God says 'I will sever... the land of Goshen' (v.22), demonstrating selective judgment. This plague may target Khepri, scarab beetle god representing resurrection and transformation.

Historical Context

Khepri, the scarab-headed god, symbolized the rising sun and transformation. The distinction between Egypt and Goshen shows this is not natural disaster but divine judgment. God's protection of His people proves His sovereignty.
