

Ezekiel 15:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

Analysis

The phrase 'they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them' indicates that escaping the first judgment (597 BC deportation) wouldn't save them from final destruction (586 BC). Each judgment is meant to reveal the LORD's character and sovereignty. The covenant formula 'ye shall know that I am the LORD' appears over 60 times in Ezekiel.

Historical Context

Those who remained in Jerusalem after 597 BC believed themselves spared by God's favor. Instead, they faced worse judgment in 586 BC—starvation, cannibalism (Lamentations 4:10), and complete destruction.
