

Ezekiel 17:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

Analysis

---

Zedekiah 'rebelled...in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people.' Seeking Egyptian military aid violated treaty and God's commands. Rhetorical questions expect negative answers. Hebrew parar ('break') suggests shattering what should bind. Covenant-breaking brings consequences, not deliverance.

Historical Context

Lachish letters (archaeological evidence) mention watching for signals during Babylonian siege, confirming the desperate situation. Letters reference officials going to Egypt, corroborating biblical accounts. Pharaoh Hophra's army briefly advanced (Jeremiah 37:5), causing temporary Babylonian withdrawal before returning with fury.
