

Ezekiel 20:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

Analysis

---

'I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them.' God's positive command to the new generation: covenant obedience. The covenant formula 'I am the LORD your God' grounds the imperative. Walk (halak—continual lifestyle), keep (shamar—guard, treasure), and do ('asah—practice) emphasize comprehensive, ongoing obedience. God's law isn't burdensome regulation but the pathway of life for those in relationship with Him.

Historical Context

This echoes the Shema (Deuteronomy 6:4-9) and covenant renewal in Deuteronomy. Joshua would lead this generation in covenant renewal at Shechem (Joshua 24). Each generation must personally commit to covenant faithfulness; it cannot be inherited automatically.

Study Questions

1. What does it mean to 'walk in' God's statutes as a lifestyle rather than occasional compliance?
2. How do we pass covenant commitment to the next generation beyond mere religious formality?
