

Ezekiel 20:44

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

Analysis

'And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.' The climax: recognition that salvation is 'for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways.' God acts despite their unworthiness, based on His character, not theirs. This is pure grace—undeserved favor. Their wickedness would merit destruction; God's grace brings restoration. The pattern of Scripture: salvation is entirely of the Lord.

Historical Context

This principle appears throughout Scripture: God chose Israel not for their greatness but His love (Deuteronomy 7:7-8), delivered them from Egypt for His name's sake (Psalm 106:8), and restored them despite unworthiness (Ezekiel 36:22-32). New Covenant salvation in Christ follows the same pattern—saved by grace through faith, not works (Ephesians 2:8-9).
