

Ezekiel 22:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

Analysis

"In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow." This verse catalogs violated relationships: parents dishonored (violating fifth commandment), strangers oppressed (violating covenant commands protecting foreigners), and orphans/widows exploited (violating explicit divine protections, Exodus 22:21-24). The threefold "in thee" emphasizes these occurred in Jerusalem's midst—systematic violation at covenant community's heart.

Historical Context

The breakdown of basic social order—family respect, protection of vulnerable, justice for outsiders—indicated comprehensive moral collapse. These weren't isolated failures but endemic patterns. Archaeological evidence and prophetic texts confirm widespread oppression of poor, corruption of justice, and abuse of vulnerable populations throughout late monarchy. When society's foundational relationships collapse, judgment becomes necessary to restore order.
