

Ezekiel 23:36

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

Analysis

God calls Ezekiel to 'declare unto them their abominations,' emphasizing the prophet's role as covenant prosecutor. The Hebrew 'to'eboth' (abominations) is the strongest term for detestable practices that violate God's holiness. Prophetic ministry must expose sin clearly, not minimize it for comfort. Truth-telling is an act of love that gives opportunity for repentance.

Historical Context

Ezekiel's ministry paralleled Jeremiah's in Jerusalem. Both prophets confronted popular false prophets who proclaimed peace when judgment was imminent (Jeremiah 6:14, 8:11). Faithful preaching often contradicts popular opinion.
