

Ezekiel 23:38

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

Analysis

Moreover this they have done unto me lists additional offenses beyond child sacrifice. They have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths details cultic corruption. Defiling the sanctuary means bringing idolatrous practices into temple worship itself. Profaning sabbaths indicates rejecting God's commanded rest and worship. In the same day reveals shocking audacity—they worshiped idols and Yahweh simultaneously, on the same day. Syncretism mingles truth and falsehood, thinking to honor God while also honoring demons. God rejects syncretistic worship absolutely. He demands exclusive devotion (Exodus 20:3). Mixing Christianity with other religions or worldly philosophies equally defiles worship. Truth tolerates no admixture with error.

Historical Context

King Manasseh placed pagan altars in the temple courts (2 Kings 21:4-5). Even after Josiah's reforms, Ezekiel 8 describes abominations practiced in the temple by Jerusalem's leaders. The people saw no contradiction in mixing worship of Yahweh with pagan practices, viewing it as inclusive and comprehensive rather than the idolatrous compromise it was.
