

Ezekiel 24:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

Analysis

She hath wearied herself with lies shifts from pot to personification—Jerusalem is an exhausted liar. And her great scum went not forth out of her, her scum shall be in the fire declares that despite exhaustive efforts, the corruption remains. Therefore it must be burned out rather than scrubbed out. Moral effort cannot remove what only grace and judgment can purge. The lies refer to false prophecies, political deceptions, and self-deception about their spiritual state. Lies exhaust those who maintain them but don't deliver promised results. Truth liberates; lies enslave and exhaust.

Historical Context

Jerusalem's final years involved constant political deception: false prophets promising peace (Jeremiah 28), secret negotiations with Egypt (Ezekiel 17:15), broken oaths to Babylon (2 Kings 24:20), and self-deception about invulnerability (Jeremiah 7:4, 'The temple of the LORD'). These lies exhausted the nation but didn't save it.
